

two semi private spaces. each can hold up to 40 people for standing event back bar

Six foot tall booths isolate this space and offer guests a private cove for dining. A small bar with eight stools allows for some to be seated and still participate with the party. Tables are set up to the side for guest use, whether for food platters or displays.

fireplace dining room

This semi- private room accommodates up to 36 people standing or 40 standing with the tables moved to the perimeter of the room.

this is it!

For larger events, sections of the main dining area, adjacent to each party room, are also reserved to ensure space for all. Groups of 150-200 would be given both rooms and all main dining room space between. Reservations are available for two to three hours at a time.
